

Anti-Slavery Office,

Dec. 31, 1850.

Friend Jackson:

The bearer of this — John Morgan — says that, some years ago, he worked as a printer on the Liberator; and recently has been at Thomaston, Maine, working at his trade, but, by the failure of the newspaper establishment at that place, lost all that was due to him, and is now very destitute. He desires to get a passage to New York, if possible, as he says he can obtain a situation there, on his arrival. This is not to solicit of you any money, but to inquire whether it is probable you could obtain for Morgan a free pass to New York? I know nothing of his case, beyond the statement herein given by himself, but have no doubt it would be an act of charity to grant him the desired pass.

Yours, truly,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
